Abstract Submission FAQs

Please refer to the 2023 Annual Meeting Abstract Policies and Procedures for complete submission and policy details.

Abstracts are limited to 2,500 characters and spaces for title, abstract body, and image caption(s). Therefore, it is important to plan, review, and edit your abstract submission for clarity and concision. Refer to the Successful Abstract Submission Guidelines for content development recommendations and some examples of top-scoring abstracts from different Scientific Sections.

When is the abstract deadline?
- The deadline for beginning a draft abstract is Friday, January 6, 2023, at 11:59 pm EST
- Draft abstracts must be finalized and submitted by Sunday, January 8, 2023, at 11:59 pm EST.
- Only abstracts with a "submission" status by the Sunday deadline will be forwarded for review.

How do I access the abstract submission site?
- From the Annual Meeting website under the Abstract page, use the "Access the abstract submission site here" link at the bottom of that page.
- You must be an ARVO member paid through 12/31/2023 to access the submission site.
- Renew or join ARVO before accessing the site.
- You will need your membership account email address and password to log in to the abstract submission site.
- First, (submitting) Authors who submit an abstract using another member's email and password will be disqualified from submission.

I paid my 2023 ARVO membership dues before submitting my abstract. Do I still need to pay the Annual Meeting registration fee to attend and present my abstract?
- Yes. If a submitted abstract is accepted for presentation, the First Author must also register and pay the full registration fee for the Annual Meeting.
  o The only exception is if you submitted a virtual presentation, in which case you would need to pay the virtual presentation fee.
- A complimentary full-meeting exhibitor registration pass/badge is not a substitute for a First Author's paid registration requirement.

My name and/or email address need to be updated in my abstract submission account; what do I need to do?
- You can make any necessary changes to your name and email address on the submission site by using the down arrow by your name at the top of any submission page.
- If you update your name or email address on the abstract submission site, you must also update your membership account. Send your membership account updates to arvo@arvo.org.
- Your name and email address in the abstract submission site and your ARVO membership account must match. Whenever you enter the abstract submission site, your name and email address from your membership account record overwrites your name and email in the abstract submission site.
- The capitalization of your name is important (i.e. Maria Smith). This action will help search for it if accepted and published.

Why can I submit only one abstract as the First Author?
- The ARVO Board of Trustees determined that only one abstract presentation should be given by each First Author to offer as much opportunity as possible for Annual Meeting attendees to share their work with colleagues and participate as fully as possible in the scientific program.

- There is no limit on the number of abstracts that can be co-authored by an individual.

I cannot travel to the meeting, can I still present my research?

- Members that know they are unable to travel to the meeting can submit an abstract by selecting the “on-demand” option under “Presentation Type”.
- After the submission deadline, you cannot change your presentation type to be in-person. If you later determine you can attend in-person, your presentation will remain on-demand.
- If your abstract is accepted, an on-demand presentation fee ($85 for MITs, $125 for regular members) will be required to participate in this option.
- On-demand presenters will have access to other on-demand presentations, but not to all Annual Meeting content. There is no virtual meeting registration for 2023. Other select meeting content will be posted online and members will have access to this content after the meeting.

What are the browser requirements for the submission site?

- Compatible browsers include Internet Explorer (IE) 9+, Mozilla Firefox 32+, Mozilla Firefox, Google Chrome 37+, and Safari 9.0.3.
- If you are using Internet Explorer to log in to the abstract submission site, it must be IE Version 10 or greater.
- Set your browser to Always Allow Pop-ups for the abstract submission site.
- If you are unable to log in using your current browser, use a different web browser.

Experiencing Technical Difficulties?

If you are unable to access the submission site due to technical difficulties, please try one of the following before contacting ARVO:

- Check to make sure pop-up blockers are disabled.
- Clear browser cache/history and cookies.
- Open the abstract submission site in a different recommended browser; ARVO recommends using Google Chrome.
- Make sure you have the updated version of the compatible browser you are using.

What are the Commercial Relationship Disclosure procedures for 2023?

- First authors are required to disclose ALL financial relationships with ineligible companies that existed within the past 24 months as well as non-remunerative positions that may create a conflict of interest. Compliance staff will review the disclosures to determine relevancy to the content of the presentation.
- First authors must also collect and provide financial relationship disclosures of each co-author. Co-author disclosures should only include financial relationships with ineligible companies that existed within the past 24 months AND are relevant to the abstract.
- Employees of ACCME-defined ineligible companies (authors and co-authors) need to include code E (Employment) as part of their disclosures in addition to entering this relationship as an affiliation.
- If no financial relationships exist, indicate N (No Commercial Relationship) for that Author.

Can I upload my abstract?

- No; however, you can cut and paste the content from a Word document.
- Each section of the abstract body must be entered into a separate text field. In addition to the title field, the four abstract body text field headers are purpose, methods, results, and conclusions.
- Special characters: In most cases, Greek letters and other special characters will transfer from your word processing software. There is a special character feature available if you need a special character that you are unable to find in your word processor.

Note: Italic, underline, bold, superscript, and subscript will not copy from Word document text. Use the editing toolbar for each text box to apply italic, superscript, and subscript formatting to your text. Underline and bold are not available for abstract titles/body text.

Does my abstract have to be entered in a specific format?

- Enter the title in the sentence case. Do not put the title in quotation marks; do not use all bold text; do not use all caps; do not add a period at the end of your title.
• The four abstract body headings have already been formatted for you: purpose, methods, results, and conclusions. A text data field has been provided for each heading. If you choose to cut and paste your abstract body from a Word document, be certain to include the appropriate content in each of the headings’ text boxes.
• Do not duplicate the abstract headings within your text boxes.

How is the maximum character count calculated?
• There is a maximum of 2,500 total characters that include all characters and spaces in the abstract’s title, abstract body, and image captions (maximum of 2 images). Images, if included, are not included in the character count.
• Your total characters count is indicated in the header bar of the abstract title/body page and will recalculate your submission’s total characters each time that page is saved.

What are the guidelines for including images?
• One or two images may be uploaded.
• Images must be: High-resolution JPEG or GIF files with a minimum resolution of 600 dpi
• Only JPEG or GIF files are compatible with ARVO’s output
• The maximum file size of 1 MB

• Maximum image height of 6 in / 15.24 cm
• A caption may be included by selecting "add the caption" after your image has been uploaded.
• Tables, graphs, figures, etc. must be uploaded as a JPEG or GIF file.

• If there are multiple clinical trial registrations for one abstract, you only need to list one.

Can I revise my abstract?

• An abstract that has been submitted by Friday, January 6, 11:59 pm EST may be returned to draft, edited, and resubmitted by the modification deadline of Sunday, January 8, 2023, 11:59 pm EST.
• Use the same abstract submission link at the bottom of the abstracts webpage with your ARVO Membership account email and password to access your abstract.
• Select "view submissions" on the left sidebar of the submissions tab.
• From the bottom of the page, select "edit draft" for an abstract in draft status.
• If your abstract is already in submissions status, you must select ‘edit/return to the draft.’ After finalizing changes to your abstract, you must resubmit it from the bottom of the review & submit step before the Sunday, January 8, 2023, 11:59 pm EST modification deadline.

I want to revise my abstract, but I can't remember my password.
• Use the same abstract submission link at the bottom of the abstracts webpage to access the abstract login page; then click “forgot password?”
• Enter your ARVO membership account email address and “continue." You will receive an email from info@arvo.org with a new password.
• The new password is case-sensitive and should be changed to something more memorable for you.

How do I submit my abstract when I have finished providing my abstract data?
• In the review and submit step (step 6), an error box will appear and provide you with a list of any information that is still needed before you can submit your abstract.
• Each error will be linked for your convenience to return to that incomplete step and provide complete information.
• Once all submission steps have been completed, the error box will not appear, and a "submit" button will appear at the bottom of the review and submit page.

How can I be certain that my abstract has been submitted?
• When your abstract has been completed in its entirety and successfully submitted, you will see “Success! Your submission was successfully submitted” in a green bar at the top of the View Submissions screen.
• You will also receive a system-generated email from ts.acsupport@clarivate.com to confirm that your submission has been received.
• On Tuesday, January 10, 2023, all First Authors with a submission status abstract will be notified by email to confirm their abstract has been submitted and will be forwarded for review.

- At that time, read-only access to your abstract proof will be available as confirmation of your abstract as it will be submitted for review.
- Add ts.acsupport@clarivate.com and arvoabstracts@arvo.org to your email address book or safe sender whitelist to facilitate delivery and avoid firewalls and spam filters. If you are unsure of how to add to your safe sender whitelist, contact your email administrator.

Can I make any changes/additions to my abstract after the Sunday, January 8 modification deadline?
- No changes, including adding, changing, or removing authors, or any other edits cannot be made to any abstract after the modification deadline of Sunday, January 8, 2023, at 11:59 pm EST.
- If selected for presentation, your abstract will be published exactly as it was submitted.
