Genentech Career Development Award for Underrepresented Minority Emerging Vision Scientists

The Genentech Career Development Award for Underrepresented Minority Emerging Vision Scientists provides research funding to early-career underrepresented minority (URM) investigators who have received their initial faculty appointment and are working to establish an independent vision research program. The award provides a two-year grant totaling $100,000 to support research and personnel costs.

Past Recipients

| Year | Recipient |
|------|-----------|
| 2021 | Elizabeth Zuniga-Sanchez, PhD |
| 2022 | Cammi Valdez, PhD |
| 2023 | Edmund Arthur, OD, PhD |